

ECCC's Commitment to Inclusivity and Opportunity:

At the Eagle County Climbers Coalition (ECCC), we are united by our shared passion for climbing and respect for the outdoors. Our commitment to fostering an inclusive climbing community is guided by principles that resonate with the values of justice, equity, diversity, and inclusion.

- Justice: We advocate for fairness and the respectful treatment of all individuals, ensuring that our practices and policies uphold the integrity and dignity of every community member.
- Equity: ECCC is committed to providing equal access to climbing opportunities and resources. We strive to remove obstacles that unfairly hinder participation in our activities, ensuring that all climbers have the opportunity to engage fully with our community.
- Diversity: We celebrate the unique perspectives and experiences that each climber brings to our community. ECCC values the richness that diversity adds to our coalition, fostering an environment where different viewpoints and backgrounds are seen as sources of strength and enrichment.
- Inclusion: Our goal is to create a welcoming and cohesive community where every member feels valued, heard, and connected. ECCC emphasizes the importance of mutual respect and collaboration, encouraging active participation and engagement from all members of the climbing community.

ECCC believes that a commitment to these principles is fundamental to nurturing a vibrant, sustainable, and inclusive climbing community. We invite climbers from all walks of life to join us in this endeavor, united by our love for the sport and our respect for the natural world.
