

Eagle County Climbers Coalition Board of Directors Application Overview

The Eagle County Climbers Coalition (ECCC) seeks passionate and dedicated individuals to join our Board of Directors. This body is fundamental in leading our mission to enhance education, outreach, access, and environmental stewardship within the climbing community. Serving on the board is a commitment to our collective vision and a chance to make a meaningful impact.

Role and Responsibilities:

As a board member, you will be responsible for:

- Strategic guidance and oversight of the organization's goals.
- Collaboration with regional partners, local stakeholders, and governing bodies.
- Leadership in initiatives to safeguard climbing areas and nurture a sustainable climbing culture.
- Participation in and contribution to ECCC's events and educational programs.

Ideal Candidate Profile:

We are looking for candidates who:

- Are devoted to conserving and developing climbing environments.
- Possess the drive to engage the community in our outreach and education efforts.
- Have experience in leadership or areas such as environmental law, nonprofit management, and fundraising.
- Are committed to safe climbing practices and community development.
- Can dedicate the necessary time to board duties, including regular meetings and ECCC-related events.

How to Apply:

Interested individuals should:

- Complete the ECCC Board of Directors Application Form.
- Prepare a cover letter detailing your interest and potential contributions to the ECCC Board.
- Include a current resume or CV that highlights relevant experiences.
- Submit a vision statement for the future of climbing in Eagle County.

Please send all application materials to eaglecountycc@gmail.com. We will review submissions on a rolling basis and contact selected candidates for further discussion.

Making a Difference Together:

Joining the ECCC Board of Directors offers the opportunity to shape the climbing landscape and community ethos in Eagle County. We encourage you to apply and bring your unique perspective and skills to our coalition.
